

GUIDELINES FOR ABSTRACT PREPARATION

Authors are encouraged to submit their extended abstracts through electronic mail and all submissions will be duly acknowledged by the editorial board.

Authors should follow the guidelines given below prior to submitting their extended abstracts.

- Authors must submit their extended abstracts using the templates downloaded from the Conference Website.
- The extended abstracts should be clear and written in British English.
- Research work presented or published elsewhere should not be submitted to CDSGeo-2018. If plagiarism is detected in an extended abstract, it will be rejected without any further reviewing.
- Extended abstract should be carefully compiled and thoroughly checked for the content and also for typographical errors. They should also reflect on findings of already completed research.
- Once an extended abstract is accepted, it is obligatory for one of the authors to present the paper in the oral or poster forms at the Conference
- All extended abstract should fit to two to three pages and contain approximately 1000 words with introduction (~30% of total content); methodology (~20%); results and conclusions (~50%); a short list of references.
- One or two figures and a table can be included in the abstract within allowed page limit.
- An acknowledgment may be included in the extended abstract, but it should not be longer than a sentence.
- If required, the source of funding of the research may be acknowledged by a single sentence.
- After the notification of the reviewers' comments, the corresponding authors should submit the revised version of the extended abstracts before the dead line.
- Extended abstracts that are accepted will be published in the CDSGeo-2018's proceedings after the final editing.
- Authors can submit their extended abstracts under any of the five thematic areas of the Conference. However, if deemed necessary, the editorial board of CDSGeo-2018 reserves the right to change the theme of the extended abstract.
- Authors must sign a declaration form confirming that the work documented in the extended abstract is an original research carried out by the authors and this work has not been published elsewhere.

INSTRUCTION TO ABSTRACT SUBMISSION

- Extended abstracts should be e-mailed to cdsgeo2018@gmail.com as an attachment on or before 31st July 2018.
- Please note that all communications (i.e., sending review comments, informing decisions, submission of revised extended abstracts, proof reading of the extended.
- Abstracts and receiving camera ready copies of the extended abstracts, etc.) will be carried out only through e-mails.
- The status of the extended abstracts that have been submitted can also be tracked using the Conference websites.